Not against us, no. He did file an action against the Snohomish County judge who dismissed his earlier case against the King County judge. [1b]

I had some communication with the Snohomish DPA on that case, and I should probably ask for a status update.

FYI. I sent an e-mail to the WSBA to let them know that Mr. Hupy is not affiliated with SCJA in any way. I suspect they are aware already but I thought it prudent to do so. Has he filed any action in court yet Jeff?
